

Pinar Kendigelen is Professor of Anesthesiology and Intensive Care at Istanbul University-Cerrahpasa. She has been interested in pediatric anesthesia for 12 years. Her research interests include evaluating the role of regional anesthesia in managing pain and recovery in children.

I will talk about ESP and other trunk blocks in thoracic, abdominal and urologic surgeries.

Especially about recent studies and results of studies with trunk blocks in children, and the effectiveness of the blocks.